

Lynne Haudenschield

1984-91 I was a full-time student at The University of Maine, Orono. At this time, I was also a single parent, and I worked. I received the following degrees:

BA, Education, grades K-12

M.Ed. Guidance Counseling, K-12

M.Ed. Mental Health Counseling

Worked in the public school system. Worked with mentally ill substance abusers at a local community agency.

1993-95. Entered a two-year certified program at Presbyterian Counseling Services which is now affiliated with SPU. Became a Licensed Marriage and Family Therapist. During this time, I was also working as a Substance Abuse Counselor with DUI clients that were on probation.

1995-2015 I worked at Youth Eastside Services, Bellevue, as a Dual Diagnosis Counselor. I worked with Youth/Families that had Mental Health and Substance Abuse problems. I led a Parent's Support Group. I worked in the schools as a counselor. I also worked with LBGTQ+ clients and their families because of my involvement with that community. My son is transgender.

During the time that I worked at YES, I also worked as a therapist with a doctor in Ballard who was licensed to administer suboxone to drug-addicted adults.

2018-2020 I served on the board of PFLAG.
